The first direct debit under this DDR arrangement will occur in accordance with your DDR form. If any direct debit falls due on a non-banking day, it will be debited to your account on the next business day following the scheduled direct debit date.

We will give you at least 14 days' notice in writing when changes to the initial terms of the arrangements are made. The notice will state relevant changes to the initial terms.

- On the direct debit date there are sufficient cleared funds in the nominated account;
- You advise us if the nominated account is transferred or closed;
- You arrange a suitable payment alternative should your bank terminate the DDR for any reason;
- You ensure that all authorised signatories nominated on the financial institution account to be debited sign the Direct Debit Request;
- You check your account statement to verify that the amounts debited from your account are correct; and
- You check with your financial institution before completing the DDR if you have any queries about how to complete the DDR.

If a direct debit is returned or dishonoured by your financial institution, you will be advised in writing that we will add that debit amount on the next scheduled direct debit date. Any transaction fees incurred by us in respect to the above may be recovered by adding that amount to the next scheduled direct debit.

If you believe that a direct debit has been initiated incorrectly, we recommend that you contact us on 1800 645 326 (free call) during office hours, so we can assist you.

If the dispute is unresolved and/or you are dissatisfied with the response, contact your financial institution who will respond to your claim. You will receive a refund of the direct debit amount if we cannot substantiate the reason for the direct debit.
